‘Devotion to St Joseph has long been a part of Catholic life mainly due to his unique position as foster father of the Lord. Pope Francis encourages us in this devotion as we see by his proclaiming a special Year of St Joseph. This book not only traces the history of devotion to St Joseph but also gives a spiritual insight into the many ways that he is an example of Christian life and a powerful intercessor for the whole Church’.

Bishop Robert Byrne OC, Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle
